

Set of all measurements: Population

The diagram consists of two ovals. The larger, outer oval is solid and contains the text 'Set of all measurements: Population'. Inside this oval is a smaller, dashed oval. An arrow originates from the dashed oval and points to a third, solid oval located below and to the right of the first oval. This third oval contains the text 'Sample'.

Set of data selected from the population:

Sample